A close-up photograph of a layered board, likely a type of particleboard or laminate. The board has a dark grey, textured surface. Several strips of white paper or fabric are applied to the surface, some overlapping and some forming a grid-like pattern. The board is resting on a dark brown surface, possibly a table or workbench. The lighting is soft, highlighting the textures of the different materials.

Reine und elegante Linien, eine hochmoderne Farbvariation, der Reiz des Schiefers und die Qualität des keramischen Porzellans: dies sind die Elemente, die LAVAGNA Reichtum und Materialität verleihen, die einzigartig sind. Eine neuartige Auslegung für ein Produkt, das bisher an den privaten Bereich gebunden war und nun zu einem interessanten Instrument für die Architektur wird. Entschieden und gut sichtbar ist die Struktur der Oberfläche, die eine besondere Sorgfalt gegenüber dem Detail und eine natürliche Einfachheit aufweist, die in der Lage sind, den Orten, an denen man den Atem der Zeit verspürt, Leben zu verleihen.

Lignes pures et élégantes, variations chromatiques sophistiquées, charme de l'ardoise, qualité du grès cérame... autant d'éléments qui confèrent à LAVAGNA une richesse et un effet de matière uniques. Une nouvelle interprétation d'un produit lié jusqu'à présent à la sphère privée, qui ouvre de nouvelles perspectives à l'architecture. La structure superficielle, nette et apparente, fait ressortir le soin extrême du détail avec une simplicité naturelle, et donne vie à des lieux dans lesquels il fait bon s'imprégner de la sensation du temps.
